

WELCOME TO BRAIM FARM

Situated in East Hopkinton, Braim Farm offers a number of select home sites set amongst beautiful New England woodlands, ensuring the serenity of country living. Set on a sixty-five acre parcel bordered by scenic country roads, Braim Farm offers traditional New England homes sited for privacy on lots ranging from one to four acres.

Exuding the warmth and charm of the New England colonial style, each luxury home site will provide the modern layout and amenities anticipated by the most discerning buyer. Architectural design elements such as exterior elevations, window designs, home colors and site lighting will define Braim Farm as an exclusive neighborhood, while buyers will have the opportunity to distinguish their homes' individual character through personal customization.

Braim Farm, LLC and Hallmark Realty, LTD invite you to learn more about the opportunities Braim Farm has to offer. For more information or a private consultation, please contact Erika Paul.
